

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. The state should be allowed to control this not the Federal government. I used to get many calls that interrupted our family time. With the Indiana Privacy Law, we have more time to spend with our family. Thank you for your time. Nancy Nibert